

REFUGEES

They bring contagious diseases

They are crazed criminals

So don't tell me

Boom! Bang! That their homes are being bombed

That they flee from a big bully

Just imagine

How crowded this country will be

It's simply untrue

Refugees feel so dispirited, so forlorn

When really

They will take over our jobs

So it's a lie to say

They need our help

Even if they are black or white or grey.
