

Welcome to Launceston

I was born in a place called Birmingham City,
It was very big and very very busy.
I enjoyed living there watching Aston Villa, walking around Moseley bog,
But then my dad told me he got a new job.

We were moving to Cornwall that's where it would be,
I was so happy and I said lucky me!
I dreamed of Cornwall and Lanson town,
I couldn't wait for us to get down.
I have made lots of friends in my new school,
My life here is really cool.

When I walk up the hill I see Launceston Castle,
Right at the top I see the town dazzle.
As I look down I eat my yummy Steak pasty,
I see the green hills and fields so grassy.
The Kensey river is beautiful and deep,
I watch the ducks with bread in their beak.
I feel like a princess so happy and free,
I feel lucky that God gave this life to me.

I was born in Birmingham and I am proud,
But when I sit on the beach and look at the sea
I know Cornwall is a part of me.
I love playing in the sand in Bude and picking shells on the shore,
This is my home forevermore.
